adult discipleship: GROW

We are an open community of Christians helping people find and give hope through Jesus Christ. We do that by encouraging everyone to do three things:

worship: Attend worship on Sunday morning.

grow: Join a group, find connection with others and grow in your relationship with God.

go: Join a serving team within the church or with one of our partners in the community.

HERE'S HOW TO JOIN A GROUP:

Browse this catalog to see what interests you.

Stop by the Connect Here booth outside of worship to help you identify your next step.

Email Susan Fuquay at fuquays@stlukesumc.com with any questions.

Attend Starting Point to hear about groups and ask questions – see back cover.

There are six different types of groups. Consider which is best for you:

- 1. Weekly Small Group: 8-14 people meeting weekly all over our community. This fall join a 10-week group that will be discussing the sermon series, BINGEWORTHY.
- 2. Kitchen Table Group: 8-10 parents with kids of similar ages meeting monthly for a meal and a short discussion. Our theme this year: Creating a Life of Purpose.
- 3. Long-term Bible Study Group: 24-week Bible study with daily homework, breaking for holidays.
- 4. Sunday Morning Group: These meet at either 9:30 or 11AM with a variety of Christian topics.
- 5. Weekday/night Short-Term Groups: These meet on a variety of Christian topics throughout the week. Many on Wednesday evening.
- 6. Online Groups: Our digital discipleship involves Facebook Live groups, sermon discussion groups and classes.

SMALL GROUPS

Small groups are intentional places to make new friends who will support you, challenge you and serve alongside you as you grow in faith. There is a place for YOU in a St. Luke's small group!

What's involved?

- Groups launch the week of August 18
- You commit to meet 10 times in the fall (it's ok to miss 1-2). Groups take a break at the end of October and re-launch in January. Between sessions, there will be chances to serve and connect socially.
- You'll discuss the weekly sermons as your initial curriculum.
- Groups are encouraged to serve through our Servolution initiative (see page 49 for more info).
- Each group finds a way to serve twice a year.

How do groups work?

- HOSTS: All groups have a host(s) who facilitate discussion.
- LOCATION: Groups meet in homes, at St. Luke's, in restaurants, workplaces and online.
- SIZE: Groups average 10 – 14 people.
- DEMOGRAPHICS: Some are age and stage specific, though most are open to anyone!
- CHILD CARE: St. Luke's helps reimburse the cost of child care for groups meeting in homes. Child care is provided at select times for groups meeting at St. Luke's.
- CURRICULUM: Take your Sunday morning experience to the next level through sermon discussion or choose from our list of group studies.

How do I sign up?

Visit stlukesumc.com for details, stop by the Connect Here booths on Sunday to tell us you're interested, or contact Dorothy Eads at eadsd@stlukesumc.com or 317-846-3404 x332.

KITCHEN TABLE GROUPS

Kitchen Table Groups are small groups specifically designed with busy parents in mind. These groups meet once a month in homes or at church while sharing a meal and conversation about topics that shape life and faith. We know that parenting is one of the busiest seasons of life, and we also know how important meaningful friendships are in the middle of the whirlwind.

How do Kitchen Table Groups work?

- HOSTS: All groups have a host(s) who helps organize the group and facilitate conversation
- SIZE: Groups range in size, but average 8 people.
- DEMOGRAPHICS: These groups are made up of parents with kids in a similar age range (1st - 2nd grade, high school and college, etc.). If your kids span different ages, simply pick a group you'd like to join.
- CHILD CARE: St. Luke's helps to reimburse the cost of child care during your group. Our hope is that these groups would foster friendships for both adults AND kids!

How do I get involved in a Kitchen Table Group?

Kitchen Table Groups begin in September and run through May. Stop by the Adult Discipleship Fair on August 18 between services to learn more and meet current Kitchen Table Group Hosts!

- SAY HELLO: After August 18, stop by our Connect Here booths any Sunday. We can answer your questions and get you registered.
- SIGN UP ON YOUR OWN: Visit stlukesumc.com to check out the content and sign up online.
- REACH OUT: Need a little bit more information before jumping in? Just let us know!

The Good and Beautiful Life: Putting on the Character of Christ

Wednesdays, Sept. 4 – Nov. 20
12 – 1PM • SLC (Susan Fuquay)

“I have never met a person whose goal it was to ruin his or her life. We all want to be happy and we want it all the time.” So begins James Bryan Smith in The Good and Beautiful Life. The problem is, he tells us, we have bought into false notions of happiness and success. These self-centered decisions lead us further into the vices that cause ruin: anger, lust, lying, worry and judging. Eventually we find ourselves living a beautifully packaged life of self-destruction. Book in Connections bookstore. Registration suggested at stlukesumc.com.

Christian citizens have a responsibility to make political and ethical judgments in light of their faith and to participate in the public lives of their communities, from their local neighborhoods to the national scene. But it can be difficult to discern who to vote for, which policies to support and how to respond to the social and cultural trends of our time.

The Will of God
by Leslie D. Weatherhead

Sept. 4 – Oct. 9 (Rev. Rob Fuquay)

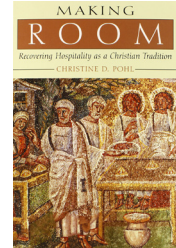

During the tumultuous era of World War II, the city of London shattered under unrelenting bombs dropped by Nazi Germany. Millions of buildings were destroyed or damaged, tens of thousands of civilians were killed and survivors were left to ask: How can this destruction be part of God's plan? What is God's will in all of this? After City Temple in London was reduced to rubble, Rev. Leslie Weatherhead crafted five sermons on understanding the will of God to help his congregation endure religious doubt as their city – and church – crumbled around them. Weatherhead's sermons were eventually published as The Will of God, a resource that has sold more than a million copies and has been a lifeline for grieving persons seeking to understand God's purpose for their pain. Book in Connections bookstore.

Making Room: Recovering Hospitality as a Christian Tradition

by Christine D. Pohl

Oct. 16 – Nov. 20
(Rev. Jevon Caldwell-Gross)

Although hospitality was central to Christian identity and practice in earlier centuries, our generation knows little about its life-giving character. Making Room revisits the Christian foundations of welcoming strangers and explores the necessity, difficulty and blessing of hospitality today.

Combining rich Biblical and historical research with extensive exposure to contemporary Christian communities – the Catholic Worker, L'Abri, L'Arche and others – this book shows how understanding the key features of hospitality can better equip us to faithfully carry out the practical call of the gospel. Book in Connections bookstore.

Awaiting the Already by Magrey R. deVega

Dec. 4, 11 & 18 (Rev. Nicole Caldwell-Gross)

Why do we spend four weeks of Advent pretending that Jesus has not been born when we know full well that he has? Awaiting the Already is a study that addresses that question. During this study, you'll discover what parts of the Christmas story come from which Gospel and uncover the tension between the past and the future in your own life. Book in Connections bookstore.

GROWING IN PRAYER TEAM:

Throughout the Bible, there are many times when God challenges us to have faith and believe that all things are possible with Him. Prayer unleashes the greatness of God. If we are even more diligent in lifting to God our hopes and dreams for our lives, St. Luke's, our community and all we serve, will experience the most amazing transformation. What are your hopes and dreams for St. Luke's? For your life? For our community? "Now to Him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we can ask or imagine, according to His power that is at work within us, to Him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever. Amen." Ephesians 3:20-21. For more information and how to join the Growing In Prayer Team, please contact Sara Cobb, sbcobb@indy.rr.com.

WEEKDAY EARLY CHILDHOOD PROGRAM

Weekdays, 9AM – 1PM, September – May

St. Luke's Early Childhood Program provides age-appropriate, play-based learning experiences. We offer high-quality opportunities for growth in cognitive, social, emotional and physical development in a loving, Christian environment. Qualified, passionate, experienced, loving staff members are dedicated to building confidence in each child's educational journey; nurturing the whole child while being supportive and committed to families.

St. Luke's is unique to other Indianapolis-area programs. We provide an opportunity for children of all ability levels to relate socially to each other, learn from each other and play together. In addition to skill development, our philosophy is that acceptance of people with differences begins at an early age. This is a special opportunity to develop the foundation for Christian attitudes towards individual differences throughout the child's life.

St. Luke's ECP serves children 10 months to 5 years old (by 8/1 of the current school year). Contact Carol Whitsitt at whitsittc@stlukesecp.com or Julie Tomaszewski at juliet@stlukesecp.com for more information or to schedule a tour! Come: play and learn with us!

Connection of all three helps to improve the academic, physical and spiritual needs of children. Volunteers are needed to tutor and read with the children, provide meals for interns and help with family fun nights. Contact Sarah Fuquay at Fuquay@ptindiana.org for more information.
