The fee payable with this application is refundable up to 10 days prior to the bazaar. Each exhibitor is limited to one booth space to allow for variety. No phone reservations or holding spaces per phone requests.

Renewal Process: Paid applications for current exhibitors are accepted the day of the 2026 Bazaar. We will accept paid reservations from current vendors up to March 1st, 2027, to hold your booth space. Payments received after March 1, 2027, there is no guarantee your space is secure.

The Bazaar will feature a Bake Sale and a luncheon for shoppers. A boxed lunch will be available for purchase by exhibitors and will be delivered to their booths.

St. Luke's Holiday Bazaar is a juried event.

PLEASE NOTE THE FOLLOWING RULES

1. Exhibitors will be asked to remove any displayed items from their booths which are not handcrafted, including watches and commercial clothing.
2. Exhibitors are not allowed to sell food or drink items at their booth.
3. NO SMOKING is allowed in the church, including the restrooms.
4. As a courtesy to your fellow exhibitors, you may not begin to dismantle your booth prior to 3:00 pm.
5. No signs or items can be attached to the church walls.
6. The booth size that you order will be marked off with blue tape on the floor. You MUST stay within your assigned space so that everyone will fit and walkways are unobstructed.

IMPORTANT: Only one space per exhibitor will be permitted, so please be certain of the booth size you need. We cannot guarantee your same location if there is a change in booth size.
